- 9:00 A.M. Sunday School for all ages
- 10:30 A.M. Traditional Service

From the Pastor:

“That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea.”
John 21:7 NRSV

As I write this letter, Carol and I are preparing to leave for the Outer Banks of North Carolina to visit Walter at Hatteras Inlet, his new Coast Guard Station. Hatteras Inlet is a former U.S. Life-Saving Service Station. The USLSS merged with the U. S. Revenue Cutter Service to form the United States Coast Guard in 1915. Their primary task along the coasts of the US was to rescue “souls” in danger of perishing at sea. It was (and still is) an important and dangerous task. The USLSS had an unofficial motto that said, “You have to go out; you don’t have to come back.” These brave men (and now women) willingly risked their lives “that others might live.” Reading the stories of rescues, watching some great Coast Guard movies (The Finest Hours, The Guardian) one thing becomes obvious... to save souls you have to get off the boat (or “helo”).

Peter, the “Big Fisherman” knew this. After a night of fishing with nothing to show for it, the Disciples looked ashore and saw a figure. He called to them, “No fish, huh?” The mysterious man told the frustrated fishermen to cast their net on the other side of the boat and they would find some. I’m sure these tired, hungry disciples were wondering “Who’s this guy telling us where to fish?” They did what he said and got a net full of fish (153 to be exact). At this point, John recognized who the stranger was, “It is the Lord!” he exclaimed. At that moment, Peter jumped out of the boat and headed to the shore where Jesus had prepared breakfast for his disciples.

If Peter had not bothered to get out of the boat, imagine how different the history of the Christian Church might have been. Think of all the people who were saved under the ministry and leadership of the Apostle Peter. Where would they have been? For folks to be saved, Peter had to get out of the boat.

Now, Peter wasn't a US Coastguardman ("Coastie") but he knew if any rescue would happen, if any souls were to be saved, he had to get out of the boat. Peter would have appreciated the motto, "You have to go out; you don't have to come back." Saving souls (yes, the term used for ship and aircraft passengers) takes commitment. It is risky business, but of vital importance. Peter eventually gave his life for his mission as have many Christians (and rescuers). I wonder if we, like Peter (and Coasties) are willing to get out of the boat to rescue souls? I mean in the spiritual sense. There are so many people who need rescuing...people in our families, our community, our world who need us now!

Pastor Walt

Children's Day June 10th

We are looking forward to all the children singing and acting on this day. Please have your children attend as many Sunday school and choir sessions as possible in the months of May and June. We would like all children to be involved and have it be a memorable experience for them. Thank you for your cooperation and faithfulness in having children attend and helping them learn more about the Bible and being a good Christian. It's never too early to start.

Ladies' Book Study

Thursday evenings May 3, 10, 17, 24, and 31 from 7-8:15/8:30 P.M. led by Carol Jesuncosky at the parsonage.

"When it comes to anxiety, depression, and stress-related illnesses, America is the frontrunner. Thankfully, there's a practical prescription for dealing with these issues. Anxious for Nothing, the most recent book from New York Times bestselling author, Max Lucado, provides a roadmap for battling with and healing from anxiety.

Max writes, "The news about our anxiety is enough to make us anxious." He knows what it feels like to be overcome by the worries and fear of life, which is why he is dedicated to helping millions of readers take back control of their minds and, as a result, their lives. Anxious for Nothing invites readers to delve into Philippians 4:6-7. After all, it is the most highlighted passage of any book on the planet.

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

Stop letting anxiety rule the day. Join Max on the journey to true freedom and experience more joy, clarity, physical renewal, and contentment by the power of the Holy Spirit. "Anxiety comes with life. But it doesn't have to dominate your life."

If you would like to order a book please contact Carol. E-books are also available online.

AUMC high school scholarship information is available in the Narthex

Bethany Walk for Children

Did you know that 19 children in foster care were reunited with their parents through Bethany Christian Services last year? On June 2nd several people from our congregation will participate in the Bethany Walk for Children. See Carol J if you would like to participate or donate.

Mission News by Bruce Krout

Last summer I asked Francis and Morgana Makuszewski to write a daily diary of their Delanco Camp experience. Both kids enjoyed the breakfast offered. Fran wrote about using leftover breakfast items such as French toast or sausage to catch fish later that day. Fran also snagged a toad one day. Singing, praying, and Bible study was also on the daily agenda. On one rainy day Morgana wrote about going to the craft shop to make crafts and on another having a dance party. They both enjoyed their camp experience.

Consider sending your child/grandchild to the Delanco Camp near Medford, NJ. The first week of camp starts July 8th. For $325 or less, your youngster gets to experience a week of camp in a Christian based program of fun camp activities. Our AUMC families can once again receive a $75 reimbursement toward the camp fee after you register your child. See Carol Tait or myself for details. Check out their website for details as to the weeks that the different age groups are involved. The Jr. Camp (for kids going into 4th to 6th grades). The next age group is Jr. High 1 which is for 7th through 9th graders. Groupings include all ages of teens. Check out the Delanco Camp website at Delanco.org (609-859-2262) for details. So many kids have grown spiritually through the Delanco Camp...think about sending yours!

Sharing God's word and love, however we can, is our mission.

Have you heard about the LINK?

Bring the kids out Friday night for some fun, food and fellowship! All kids in grades 5-8 are welcome to come from 6:30 P.M. – 8:00 P.M. in our 3rd floor youth room. Coleen M and William B are leading the group.

In the United States, Mother’s Day was first suggested in 1872 by Julia Ward Howe the author to the words “Battle Hymn of the Republic” as a day dedicated to peace. In 1907, Anna Jarvis from Philadelphia began a campaign to establish a nation Mother’s Day and President Woodrow Wilson made it official in 1914.

The Bible has always reminded us of mothers;

“And Adam called his wife’s name Eve, because she was the mother of all living.” Genesis 3:20

“Honor your Father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the LORD your God is giving you.” Exodus 20:12

“She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: ‘Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.’ Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.”

Proverbs 31:26-31

Remembering our Mothers

*You’ll never forget your mother’s face,
 The sound of her voice,
 The gentleness of her touch...
 They let you know you were loved.*

*You’ll never forget the stories she told,
 The traditions she handed down...
 They let you know who you are.*

*You’ll never forget the lesson she taught,
 The things she stood for....
 They are her gift and your legacy.*

*You’ll never forget, and you’ll always know
 That you honor her every day in how you live and who you are.*
