From the Pastor: The Last Word

"I thank my God every time I remember you,"

Philippians 1:3 NRSV

On April 1, 2001, I received a phone call from the District Superintendent telling me it was the Bishop's intention to appoint me to Audubon. I'd been to Audubon a number of times as a youngster shopping with my parents at E. J. Korvettes. I knew it was a nice area, but never dreamed back then I would live in Audubon, let alone be a pastor here. The Lord had his plans and the rest is history.

Now, 18 years after that phone call, I am retiring to a lovely rancher in the town my family and I have called home ever since. We've raised our sons here. They both graduated from AHS. The boys participated in sports and marching band in Audubon. They met their future brides here (one down, one to go). We were blessed with a great church family (many have gone on to heaven) and made friends with folks inside and outside the church. We've laughed, cried, prayed, and rejoiced together.

Now it is time for Carol and I to say goodbye and thank you. Thank you for your love and support in the good times and the difficult times. Thank you for providing a lovely home for us, for helping us raise and mentor our children, for allowing us to be part of your lives. As you all know, we aren't going far...literally just around the corner to our home on Cedarcroft Ave. You will still see us around at the supermarket or Wawa. Carol will continue her part-time job in Haddonfield. You will see me on my front porch sipping coffee or lemonade. I will rebuild my train layout. But we will no longer be your pastoral family. Though I could continue in full time ministry until the mandatory retirement age of 72, I know in my heart it is time for me to step down and leave the work to someone with new ideas, new gifts, new strategies. I honestly don't know if I will ever be the pastor of a church again. Right now, I want to rest, renew, travel, and enjoy my retirement. Carol and I may not return to AUMC, as the tradition says, for one year. We will visit other churches, Ocean City Tabernacle, Ocean Grove Camp Meeting, and Malaga Camp in the weeks ahead. Your new pastor, Jisun Kwak, has been kind enough to invite us to stay involved here, but we will honor the tradition and the bishop's directive and stay away (though you may see us at the 4th of July Parade and the Live Nativity as spectators). Carol and I covet your prayers for us as we transition to a new life. Your prayers for Walt & Sarah, Miles and Morgan are much appreciated as well. Keep Pastor Jisun in your prayers, too. She needs your support and encouragement as you journey together to what may be the best days of Audubon United Methodist Church.

So, for now, we say thank you and "God be with you 'till we meet again." It has truly been a blessing to have ministered with you, for you, and to you for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Pastor Walt and Carol

Returning to a Previous Appointment

1. As of the effective date of a new appointment, a pastor shall immediately cease all pastoral counseling and pastoral visitation with members or member families in the previous appointment. Since appointments are generally announced at least several weeks in advance, each pastor has adequate time in which to affect closure and make appropriate referral to another for the pastoral care of members.

2. Pastors shall have a clear understanding with former congregations that they will not return to officiate at baptisms, weddings, and funerals, or do pastoral counseling or pastoral visitation in that parish. Pastors, active or retired, shall respectfully decline to participate in such duties when invited by members of a former congregation. Declining all such invitations is the responsibility of the previous pastor.

3. The District Superintendent must be consulted by the previous pastor in advance of any return for pastoral functions. Such visits to former churches shall require the advance approval of the District Superintendent. The present pastor should never be under any pressure to invite the previous pastor. Pressure to involve the previous pastors should not be generated by either the congregation or the previous pastor.

Mission News by Bruce Krout

“Sinicization” is a term that describes the policy that the Chinese Communist Party is using to strongarm its religious institutions to conform to Party values and priorities. These regulations were put into effect in February 2018 and impacted all global religions in China whether Christian, Buddhist, or Muslim. Inspectors monitor churches and temples to make sure they have Chinese flag raising ceremonies, and teach the Chinese constitution and core socialist values. Religious freedoms are infringed upon further by the “Five Forbidden” policy which prohibits five kinds of people from participating in religious activities: children under 18 years old, Communist Party members, students, military personnel, and public officials. With all of these restrictions it is obviously difficult for Christianity to flourish. Recent communications with one of our Asian missionaries have reflected this clampdown. Please pray for all who are dealing with this Sinicization.

Knowing the reality of this world situation, it is important that we support our missionary organizations. One of these is the International Students, Inc. ISI is an outreach to evangelize to international college students so that they can learn about Jesus and hopefully gain a personal relationship with Him and take “the Word” back to their friends and families. David Mannon (George and Estelle MacCulloch’s son-in-law), of ISI, recently told me that he was putting more effort into reaching out to the Chinese Rutgers students. This past school year three Rutgers’s University students have benefitted from their ISI experience and have come to know Christ.

This spring, the founder of ISI, Dr. Bob Finley passed away at 96 years of age. This remarkable man recognized back in the 1950’s that many missionaries were being expelled from China. He had the vision to begin a program evangelizing to students studying here in the safe confines of the U.S. This program has truly blossomed since then.

Please check out the Graisbury Ave. bulletin board for details as to how you can financially support missionaries working locally or globally. As we approach Independence Day, please recognize how blessed we are to live in a country where religious freedom still exists!

Sharing God’s word and love, however we can, is our mission.

VBS is coming! July 14-19

Everyone (ages 3-100) is invited to join us as we discover Jesus' Miraculous Mission and learn how He saves the world!

If you would like to help the kids discover more about Jesus, please see Linda Holonia or Susan Medoro.
