A note from the Pastor:

An-nyoung-ha-she-yo?

Some of you may remember the Korean greeting that I have introduced while back. Its literal meaning is “Are you being well?” This is one Korean word you may want to remember. When you, the non-Korean speaking person, say this to any Korean, you will find big smile from their faces without exception.

I begin my letter with my favorite greeting with hope that you all are “being well.”

There is a Korean saying, “Time flies like an arrow.” I feel it more and more as each year passes by particularly in this COVID era, while we were eager to see this time passed, we are shockingly surprised that one year has already flown like an arrow. I hope that you know for a fact that God was there with us and will be with us all the time. You will be able to see and feel the presence of God if you open your mind, “in an unexpected moment, at a least expected place” as I preached on January 24, 2021.

Yes, time flew and the season of Lent is right around the corner. Lent (Latin: Quadragesima, 'Fortieth') is a solemn religious observance in the Christian liturgical calendar that begins on Ash Wednesday which is February 17 this year and ends six weeks later, a day before Easter Sunday. The purpose of Lent is the preparation of the believer for Easter through prayer, doing penance, mortifying the flesh, repentance of sins, and self-denial. In Lent, many Christians commit to fasting, as well as giving up certain luxuries in order to replicate the account of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ's journey into the desert for 40 days; this is known as Lenten sacrifice.

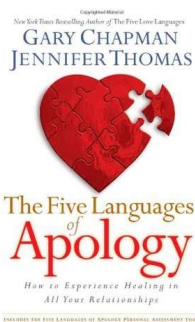

I would like to suggest some ways we can observe the season of Lent in meaningful productive ways together. First one is to separate 15 minutes of your day for the daily devotional as we did last year instead of sacrificing something you enjoy. You are right that you do not need to give up on sweets, chocolates, or ice cream. The devotional we will read together is, titled, Message of Letting Go for Lent 2021: 3 minute devotion. You can pick it up after worship service or from the church office. You are welcome to deliver them to your neighboring church families when you pick yours up.

We will receive Lenten Prayer Calendar. This calendar contains names of our church family on each day during Lent. In your devotional time, please add a brief prayer for the designated families. Place the calendar where you will see it well for sure and wish their wellbeing throughout the day. When you do it, you will know for sure someone is doing it for you.

I am planning to preach a series of sermon during the Lent, titled, “The Five Languages of Apology” based on the book, written by Gary Chapman and Jennifer Thomas “The Five Languages of Apology:

How to experience healing in all your relationships.” Each Sunday, we will reflect on each language of apology. We have been through a lot lately... personally, nationally, yes, internationally. This book concludes with a chapter of a profound question, “What would the world be like if we all learned to apologize effectively?” I am sure that God has something quite different to tell each of you. I would like to nudge you to open your ears to listen to the still small voice of God whispering into your ears as sincerely as you can. We will also devote our Wednesday evening online gathering, Comfort Food, for it. Together, we will echo on the theme of each language of apology of the week.

My daily devotional time is 7:00 AM each day. During the season of Lent, I commit to walk the journey of Lent beginning at 6:00 AM in the morning. Please join me in this journey of hope and renewal by listening to the sermons each week, participate in the Comfort Food table of Wednesday evening online, read the book yourself with open heart, and pray daily with the devotional.

Will you, please?

Prayerfully,
Your pastor, Jisun.

Mission News by Bruce Krout

This year is the 100th anniversary of the Red Bird Mission founded by Rev. J.J. DeWall who wanted

“to bring Jesus into every heart”. His plan was to spread the Good News of the Gospel to the southern Kentucky-area communities via churches, schools, and mission projects. Red Bird Mission built their first hospital in 1928 and eventually many clinics, as well. Rev. DeWall was from the Evangelical United Brethren Church that later joined with the Methodist Church and became the United Methodist Church in 1968.

Our AUMC supports the Red Bird Mission financially each year. Did you know that roughly ten years ago, five adults and six of our own teens went for a week during the summer to build a new roof on a house and repair a floor and a roof on a trailer home through the Red Bird Work Camp? Some of the group members were involved in a painting project at a local school on the Red Bird Campus. Those mission-minded AUMC members were Christy & Tracy Schnyer, Rose & Sam Arcaini, Barry, Paula, Nicole & Billy Zane, Diane & Chris Stanley and Pat Mace.

Barry Zane told me that this isolated, rural area of the Appalachian Mountains is hard-hit by poor housing and lack of employment. The two main employers in the region are the Federal Prison system and Red Bird Missions. Many church groups throughout the United States reserve months in advance to go to Red Bird to help out the needy. A committee decides when you arrive as to what type of project your group will be involved with. Ten years ago, the cost for a family of 4 to stay at Red Bird and pay for construction supplies was $1,200 for the week. Two thirds of that cost went toward building supplies. A typical work camp schedule includes devotions at 7 a.m., followed by breakfast and leaders’ meetings. Groups go to their work sites from 8 a.m.- 4 p.m. and return for dinner and worship service or fellowship meetings in the evening.

What a worthy organization the Red Bird Mission is! Check out their website at rbmission.org. Are you bringing Jesus into someone’s heart this week like Rev. DeWall?

Sharing God's word and love, however we can, is our mission.

Cancer with Hope

Join our Journey of Hope Cancer Care Ministry February 22 on Zoom. For more information, please contact Bruce Krout.

Collingswood Food Pantry

We continue to collect paper and plastic grocery bags for the food pantry at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Collingswood. Please leave them on the porch leading to the pastor's office at the church house, not the front porch. If you or anyone you know is in need, please contact Elaine Soulliard who is our liaison with the pantry and may be reached at 609-280-4792.

Coming Feb. 1, join Liz Curtis Higgs on Facebook LIVE for Rise and Shine Mondays! A scripture, a story, a reflection, and a prayer, shared in a few lively minutes. All the joy-filled encouragement you need to start your week with a smile, every Monday @ 8am LIVE. Too early?

Watch whenever you wake up. Not on Facebook? No problem. Each video for Rise and Shine Mondays will be posted on my website for two weeks. Rise, sister mine. And shine!

For a spiritual boost at the close of each week, join Liz Curtis Higgs on First Thing Friday, as we spend a few minutes unpacking just one verse from the Bible. You'll find me every Friday @ 8a.m. LIVE on our Christ Church Facebook page, then posted on my Liz Curtis Higgs Facebook page moments later. Pure joy!

No need to write your check for Church in 2021! Electronic giving gives you a convenient way to keep up with your intended offerings. Simply complete and return the electronic giving authorization form to get started which can be found in the narthex.

You can designate your offering to any of the following funds and you can choose the weekly, semi-monthly or monthly options.

Tithes & Offerings      Repairs and Maintenance
Advent Offering      Christmas Offering
Lenten Offering      Easter Offering
Thanksgiving Offering      United Methodist Women
AUMC Walker/Bowen/Betts Scholarship Funds
